

Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this Sub-fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Sub-fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

BBH Core Select (the Sub-fund), a Sub-fund of BBH Luxembourg Funds (the Company)
Class: I ISIN: LU0407242659; Class: R[i] ISIN: LU0527403801; Class: RN[i] ISIN: LU0952053642 (each, a Class).
This Sub-fund is managed by FundRock Management Company S.A. (the Management Company).

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Sub-fund seeks to generate attractive equity returns while maintaining an emphasis on capital preservation.

The Sub-fund will typically invest in shares of large companies (with a stock market value greater than $5 billion) that are headquartered in North America, as well as certain global companies located in other developed regions. The Sub-fund may also purchase other shares with equity characteristics, such as securities convertible into shares, warrants which are freely transferrable rights to buy other investments at a future date and depository receipts which represent an underlying share which trade on major financial markets.

The Core Select Sub-fund may invest in U.S. dollar - denominated short-term instruments, including repurchase agreements, obligations of the U.S. government, its agencies or instrumentalities, commercial paper and bank obligations (such as certificates of deposit, fixed time deposits, and bankers' acceptances), and securities of non-U.S. governments (or agencies or subdivisions thereof). Subject to the Core Select Sub-fund's investment restrictions, the Core Select Sub-fund may invest in units of UCITS and other UCITs.

The Sub-fund would typically invest in approximately 25-35 companies that meet specific business, financial, and management criteria when the Investment Manager identifies a difference between its estimate of a company's intrinsic value and the actual market value of the company.

On average, the Sub-fund aims to hold shares in these companies for 3-5 years. The sub-fund is actively managed and references the S&P 500 Index (the "Benchmark") for comparative purposes only. The Investment Manager has full discretion over the composition of the sub-fund's portfolio and may take exposure to companies, countries or sectors not included in the Benchmark.

The Investment Manager's investment approach includes consideration of sustainability risks which could enhance its ability to manage risk and to achieve its long-term investment objectives. In managing the Sub-fund, the Investment Manager does not maximize portfolio alignment with sustainability risks as a separate goal in its own right nor does it precisely attribute the impact of environmental, social and governance factors on returns for such Sub-fund. Notwithstanding the above, the investments underlying this financial product do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities which are determined by the Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, as amended from time to time. Principal adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors are not currently considered due to the lack of available and reliable data. The situation will, however, be reviewed going forward.

For full details of the objectives and investment policy of the Sub-fund please refer to the prospectus of the Company (the Prospectus).

Income will automatically be included in the value of your investment unless you invest in Class RN[i] and specifically request that dividends be paid.

You may purchase and redeem shares of a Class on each day that banks are open for business in Luxembourg and New York, and the New York Stock Exchange is open for a full day (subject to a possible entry charge and exit charge as described below).

Risk and Reward Profile

Synthetic Risk and Reward Indicator (SRRI)

⇐ Potentially lower reward Potentially higher reward ⇐

⇐ Lower risk Higher risk ⇐

What do these numbers mean?

They rate how a fund might perform and to what extent your capital is at risk. Generally, higher possible gains also mean higher possible losses. A Category 1 fund means that your investment is subject to only a small risk of losses, but it also means a reduced chance of gains. A Category 7 fund has the highest potential level of gains or losses, and you might not get any of your money back.

Why is this Sub-fund in Category 6?

Funds in category 6 have in past shown relatively high volatility. With a fund of category 6, you have a relatively high risk of losing money but your chance for gains is also relatively high.

More about this rating:

The historical data used to calculate this synthetic indicator may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Sub-fund. Thus, the risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and the categorisation of the Sub-fund may shift over time. The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment. The differences between categories are not based on a simple scale, so (for example) 2 does not carry twice the risk as 1, and the gap between 1 and 2 might not be the same as the gap between 2 and 3.

Risks relevant to the Sub-fund not adequately captured by the SRRI:

Issuer Risk: The value of a security may decline for a number of reasons which directly relate to the issuer, such as management performance, financial leverage and reduced demand for the issuer's goods or services. Investors should also read Risk Descriptions in the Prospectus for a full description of each of the Sub-fund's risks.
