

Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this Fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

The Harding Loevner Emerging Markets Equity Fund (the "Fund"): USD Class I

The Fund is a sub-fund of Harding Loevner Funds plc (the "Company")

ISIN: IE00B1WL5D57

The Company has appointed Waystone Management Company (IE) Limited (the "Manager") as its management company.

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Fund's investment objective is to provide long-term capital growth in your investment by investing primarily in a variety of emerging market equities.

The Fund will invest in stocks and equity related securities of issuers based in emerging markets in Asia, Latin America, Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

The Fund will also invest (up to 10% of its assets) in open-ended collective investment schemes which shall be mainly in the form of exchange traded funds and shall be listed and traded in the US and Europe.

Equity related securities include, but are not limited to, common stocks, preferred stocks, warrants, rights, convertible securities, depository receipts, equity-linked notes and participatory notes. Warrants are securities that give the holder the right to purchase securities from the issuer at a specific price within a certain timeframe. Rights give shareholders in a company the option to purchase new shares issued by that company at a predetermined price in proportion to the number of shares already owned. Convertible securities are securities, usually bonds or preferred shares, that can be converted into common stock. Depository receipts are financial instruments issued by a bank which provide a return on the shares and stocks they represent. Equity-linked notes and participatory notes (p-notes) are financial instruments which may be used by a Fund to gain indirect exposure to various equity markets in countries where direct investment is either impossible or difficult due to local investment restrictions.

Your shares do not pay you income, instead the Fund reinvests income to grow your capital.

You can sell your shares on a daily basis.

The Fund is actively managed by the Investment Manager and has discretion over the composition of its portfolio. The performance of the Fund will be measured against the MSCI Emerging Markets Index.

This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within a five to seven year market cycle.

For more information, please see the section entitled 'Investment Objective and Policies' in the Prospectus.

Risk and Reward Profile

- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.
- The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.

This Fund is in category 4 because of the high range and frequency of price movements of the underlying investments of the Fund.

The indicator opposite does not take account of the following risks of investing in the Fund:

Credit and counterparty risk - there is a risk that a counterparty to a derivatives contract may not be able to meet interest, principal or settlement payments or otherwise honour its obligations.

Liquidity risk - it may become difficult to sell the Fund's assets at any given time for a reasonable price.

Market risk - certain stocks may decline in value more than the overall stock market and some markets may become illiquid or highly volatile.

Currency risk - the Fund may invest in securities that are issued in currencies other than the base currency of the fund.

Derivatives risk - the complexity and rapidly changing structure of derivatives markets may increase the possibility of market losses.

The Fund invests in emerging and frontier markets which carry higher than average investment risks and the Fund may have problems or delays in having its investments returned when required.

For more information on risks, please see the section entitled 'Risk factors' in the Prospectus.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.
